PITTSBURGH (Newsradio 1020 KDKA) - There's big news for fast food lovers because Checkers and Rally's have announced they are expanding into the Pittsburgh market.

The company announcing earlier this week they plan to add two dozen locations in the Pittsburgh area by next year.

Checker's and Rally's currently have around 900 locations nationwide. Most locations are simply drive thru, but some have walk up windows as well.

Rally's last had a handful of locations in Pittsburgh in the late 90s, including one on the North Side near Three Rivers Stadium.
